FERGESON SKIPPER
ATTORNEYS AT LAW

J. Allison Archbold Graduates from the Florida Fellows Institute of the American College of Trust and Estate Counsel

SARASOTA, FL (May 2017): J. Allison Archbold, a shareholder in the law firm of Fergeson Skipper, P.A., has graduated from Class II of the Florida Fellows Institute of the American College of Trust and Estate Counsel (ACTEC). She successfully completed three two-day sessions over seven months. Lawyers who participated in the program were nominated by a Florida ACTEC Fellow and selected through a competitive application process. The in-depth educational presentations on trust and estate law were taught by ACTEC Fellows.

ACTEC is a national organization of lawyers elected to membership by demonstrating the highest level of integrity, commitment to the profession, competence and experience as trust and estate counselors. The Florida Fellows Institute was created by Florida ACTEC Fellows to develop the profession's future leaders in trusts and estate law through a series of in-depth educational presentations led by outstanding subject matter experts in each field from across the U.S.

Archbold is certified by The Florida Bar as a specialist in wills, trusts, and estates, and has an AV[®] Preeminent[™] Peer Review Rating from the attorney rating site Martindale-Hubbell, which is the highest rating available for an attorney's legal ability and professional ethics. Prior to joining the firm, she served as a U.S. Marine Corps Judge Advocate from 1998 to 2006.

She is on the Board of Directors of the Sarasota County Bar Association, where she is also a member and former Chair of the Estate Planning and Probate Section's Steering Committee. She serves on numerous committees of The Florida Bar's Real Property, Probate and Trust Law Section, including the Executive Council; and she is a member of the Southwest Florida Estate Planning Council and Treasurer of the Board of Trustees of Marie Selby Botanical Gardens.
